Who is Governor?

We give, this morning, official or reported returns from every county in this State in which an election was held on the 3d inst. Of these, all but four are official, and the reported results in those four are doubtless very nearly accurate. Our figures put Judge RANDALL upwards of 500 votes ahead on the official canvass, and 200 ahead, including the disputed return from Jefferson, and not including the votes of several rejected towns which gave Republican majorities. It is therefore, we think, perfectly safe to assume that ALEXANDER W. RANDALL is the Governor elect of this State. The Republicans have also elected the State Prison Commissioner, Mr. MACGRAW, and probably the Treasurer, Mr. HASTINGS. The vote on Lt. Governor is very close. The Democrats have doubtless elected their candidates for the other State officers.

Randall ahead 509 votes. Deducting the 316 votes in the rejected towns of Jefferson County, and not adding the rejected towns in Oconto, Marathon, Pierce and Brown, which gave 73 majority for Randall, he is 192 votes ahead, and "out of the woods!"

The Cleveland in the Storm.

We find, in the Chicago papers, some account of the narrow escape of the steamer Cleveland from total wreck, during the fearful gale of Wednesday night and Thursday. Our fellow citizen, Mr. J. LADUE, who was on board the Cleveland and who returned from Chicago, by rail road, yesterday, has furnished us with some additional particulars. The Cleveland left Green Bay on Tuesday, and made good weather till Wednesday evening, when it began to snow. She was then off Port Washington, and after landing there, the gale suddenly came up, the waves rising fast, and the weather growing very thick. Not fancying a lee shore, in so threatening a night, the Captain put out into the Lake. The gale hourly increased in violence, and by mid-night the sea was terrific. About 2 A. M. of Thursday, a combing wave carried away part of the wheel house, saloon, &c., and ripped up some of the deck planking.

Each successive sea now broke over the steamer, the water rose in the hold, the fires were put out, and she lay at the mercy of the elements:—All hands, passengers and crew, were now summoned to man the pumps and bail for their lives. The order was promptly and cheerfully obeyed, and from 2 o'clock Wednesday morning until after mid-day, they labored incessantly, but without gaining upon the water. Shortly after noon, however, the engineer once more succeeded in starting his fires, steam was got up, the engine set in motion, and with the aid of the steam pump, the hold was soon freed from water. The steamer was then headed for Chicago, where she arrived safely between 6 and 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

Mr LADUE speaks in the highest terms of the conduct of Capt. FLOOD and his officers, during the trying scene. He adds that Capt. FLOOD was materially aided in his duty by Captain NICHOLAS BOUTON, of Kewaunee, who was on board, and who proved himself every inch a sailor. The Steward, Mr. FRIEDMAN, and the Clerk, Mr. J. A. MILLS, were also indefatigable in their efforts. Indeed all behaved well.

The Sam Ward, which was out in the same gale, managed to get in early Thursday morning, after experiencing very rough weather. We fear that we shall hear of other disasters.

MISSISSIPPI FROZEN OVER.—The Mississippi River was frozen over at Prairie du Chien on Thursday, and navigation may be considered about over. The northwestern travel which has hitherto gone and come by way of the Galena & Chicago R'R., will now be thrown upon the Milwaukee & Mississippi at Prairie du Chien.

DU BAY'S TRIAL.—The trial of John B. Du Bay for killing Reynolds, was postponed last week by Judge COLLINS, to Tuesday, the first day of December next, at Madison. The Madison Argus says that all other reports fixing the day of trial, are erroneously calculated to mislead witnesses and others who may be interested.—Portage Record.

ACCIDENT.—About half past seven o'clock yesterday morning, the schooner Forest Rose, of Port Huron, Mich, in attempting to make the harbor, ran into Waterman's pier, and carried away about one hundred feet of it. After going through the pier, the vessel drifted out into the lake, and the last that was seen of her, she was drifting southward, towards the head of the lake. he crew saved themselves by jumping on the pier.—Racine Journal.

Disasters by the Gale.

The Chicago Tribune of yesterday brings the following accounts of disasters by the late gale:

SCHR. KOSSUTH WRECKED.—The schooner Kossuth which arrived in port on Wednesday afternoon, from Sheboygan, and was moored to the north pier, on Wednesday night, was blown out into the lake, and before morning was wrecked on the beach water of the Illinois Central R. R. The crew took to the rigging and were rescued shortly after daylight, by the tug John P. Levy — She now lies on her beam ends and will prove a total loss. The Kossuth was built this season, owned by C. Raby of Sheboygan, and is worth about $10,000. Said to be insured in the Northwestern.

The owner, Mr. Raab, had on board at the time $2,100.

BRIG CONSTELLATION ASHORE.—Information was received here yesterday that the brig Constellation, while lying at Waukegan, being loaded with wheat, was blown out into the lake, and then on the beach. She had on board 6,000 bu wheat at the time.

SCHR. MARY JANE GONE TO PIECES.—On Wednesday night the schooner Mary Jane went ashore at Gro. Point, 12 miles below here. The crew all escaped. She is fast going to pieces.

The Mary Jane was loaded with wood from Manistee for this port. She was owned by Olson & Hill, Manistee—worth $2,400.

The steamer Cleveland, from Green Bay, had a hard time, but reached Chicago in safety. The Tribune says:

She had indeed a "hard time" of it. She left Green Bay on Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock. On Tuesday encountered a heavy blow from the north-west, but on Wednesday the weather settled and they made excellent time. About 11 o'clock at night, however, a heavy gale came up from the north-east, and the noble steamer labored hard. She shipped heavy seas and made considerable water. The pumps were kept going—but, despite all, about midnight the fires were extinguished, and she was left to the mercy of wind and waves. Soon after this the mainsail and jib were carried away, and to relieve the vessel her whole deck-load of fish, furniture, and other freight of value was thrown overboard.—About 2 o'clock in the morning, by dint of pumping and bailing, the water was got under, and the fires again set going. But the fury of the gale increased, and the fires were once more drowned out. At this juncture, matters looked gloomy; but Capt. Flood never flagged an instant in his energies—nor did the passengers, who turned in nobly and stood for hours at the pumps. About 11 o'clock, the water was again mastered, and steam was once more got up.

From this time on the splendid steamer behaved nobly, and she arrived in port, as stated, about half-past seven o'clock. Her bulwarks, gangway, kitchen, and barber shop, are all completely smashed, and she presents quite a shattered appearance.

We learn from Capt. Flood that the passengers—sixty in number—behaved boldly. With one exception they all turned in and worked at the pumps like heroes. This one exception was an Englishman who "had paid his passage and did not mean to work it." Had shame been a possible thing for him, he would have been put to the blush, by a young lady, a passenger, who when he refused, nobly volunteered to supply his place. "I'll go," she replied; but it was not thought necessary to accept of her offer.

The passengers are all unlimited in their praises of Capt. Flood. From the moment the steamer left Green Bay till she arrived in port, he sought no rest. To a kind Providence and his unflinching energy and promptness they attribute their safety.

An attempt was made last night to reach Milwaukee; but it snowed so hard, they were unable to make out the harbor.

The Result in Superior and Douglas County.

From the Superior Chronicle, 10th inst.

The election last Tuesday, in this county, passed off very quietly. An unusually small vote was polled, less even than last fall. But little interest was felt in the election, and many voters did not go to the polls at all.

The following is the result:

Suffrage yes	2	No	152 — maj. 150
Randall	28	Cross	145 — " 117
Schurz	27	Campbell	146 — " 119
Thomas	27	Jones	146 — " 119
Hastings	27	Hoblch	144 — " 117
Jackson	27	Bouck	145 — " 118
McMynn	29	Draper	143 — " 114
McGregor	27	Squires	145 — " 117
McGraw	27	McGarry	114 — " 114

It will be observed that no votes were cast against Mr. Mears, the Democratic candidate for State Senator. This was owing to the fact that the name of the nominee of the Republican party was not known in this county. The average Democratic vote is one hundred and forty five, a decrease since last year of four; and the Republicans twenty-four, a decrease of eighteen.

DARING ROBBERY.—Last Saturday night, after the store of Demers & Bro. was closed for the night, the clerk of the establishment, left in charge, decamped with $750 which had been left in the desk, preparatory to being sent away by Express Monday morning. In the morning, as soon as the theft was known, the police officers of the city, and some additional deputies were despatched in all directions. It is reported he took breakfast at the Rising Sun Tavern, nearly west from Lamartine some six or eight miles.—He has not been arrested to our knowledge. His name is Jacob Hartzell, and is a Pennsylvania German of medium size.—Fond du Lac Dem.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.—The chief work consummated by the House yesterday was the passage of the State Interest and Railroad bill.—The only amendment made to it was the postponement of the levy of the mill tax till 1858. It passed by a majority of 16. The Senate accepted the amendment, and the bill now only awaits the signature of the Governor to become a law.

The Senate was presented with a copy of "My Life and Times," by ex-Governor Reynolds, of Illinois.—St. Louis News, Nov. 15.

ACCIDENT.—A rumor was current yesterday, that a woman was killed on the Racine & Miss. R. R., near Durand, by being run over by the morning train from the West. We are unable to learn the particulars of the accident.—Racine Journal of yesterday.

The above is a decidedly moderate Police record for a city of nearly 50,000 inhabitants.

That "City Loan."

"A Tax-payer," who sends us the particulars about the "City Loan," which we have in vain called for from Mayor Cross, will please give us his name. We doubt not the facts are, substantially, as he states them, and we desire his name, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. The public are entitled to the facts in this case, and we propose to publish them, if vouched for by responsible parties.

Miss Davenport as Juliet.

The finest piece of acting that we have witnessed for many a day, was Miss Davenport's representation of Juliet, in that master-work of Shakespeare's genius, the tragedy of "Romeo and Juliet," at the Metropolitan Theatre, on Thursday evening. There was not a very full house, doubtless owing, in a measure, to the extreme severity of the weather, but it was, however, decidedly an improvement upon the attendance of the night previous, and no doubt, if the weather had been reasonably mild, there would have been a much better house. Miss Davenport received the most complimentary applause from those present, and, as usual, was called before the curtain at the conclusion.

Her personation of the character of "Juliet" was an exhibition of rare dramatic skill. Her talents are of the first order, and the highest encomiums we can bestow upon her fall short of the praise which her genius merits.

Some of the other characters in this play were tastefully represented. Mr. Mulholland as "Romeo," acted with his usual good will, but we must say that in the opinions of many who were present, he fell far short of a truthful representation of that important character. According to our conception of ROMEO, he was altogether too violent, too fiercely passionate for the "gentle lover." Mr. Mulholland is an artist of unquestionable talent, and in his impersonation of some characters, he lacks little of perfection, while in others it is the contrary.

Mr. Johnson made an excellent Friar, and Mr Davis as "Mercutio," played his part well.

Mrs. Miller, as "Nurse," did remarkably well, and most of the other characters were fully sustained.

THE SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) REPUBLICAN.—We publish to-day, the advertisement of this most excellent paper, and commend it to those who desire to obtain a journal which truly reflects the Republican sentiment of New England. Mr. SAMUEL BOWLES, who was connected with the Boston Traveller as chief editor, and who retired from that paper when he found that his associate proprietors could not come up to the Republican standard, is again in charge of the Springfield Republican. Hosts of New England people have their homes now in Wisconsin, and they can find no better family paper, bringing them news from their old homes in the East, than this one which we notice.

WEATHER.—Our winter weather continued through yesterday, though in the afternoon the atmosphere was in a much more mild and placable condition Overcoats and furs were in requisition, however, throughout the day. The ice in the river covers nearly the whole surface above Walker's Point Bridge, and vessels are sheeted with the winter drapery. Jack Frost has made an early call. His company can well be spared for some time to come.

PUT BACK.—The brig Mohegan and schooner Nonpareil, bound from Chicago for Buffalo, with wheat, were towed into this port yesterday. They met the violent gale of Wednesday night near the Manitous, and had to scud before it. The rigging and decks of both vessels were covered with ice. The Nonpareil lost her small boat, but no damage was sustained by vessels, or cargoes.

NEW STYLES FOR GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.—Quite a number of gentlemen appeared in the streets yesterday with apparel for the extremities which they called "Randall" caps, and "Randall" boots—very good looking affairs they were, too. Some of our democratic friends had been paying up their election bets.

INFORMATION WANTED.—On Saturday, two weeks ago, a young woman arrived in this city on the cars from Chicago, having just come over from England, and stopped at the boarding house of Reinerson, on Walker's Point. Two young men accompanied her, who solicited accommodations for her at this house, stating that she was out of money, but had relatives in Sauk county, to whom she was going, who would send her means and take her away. Her appearance indicated that she was soon to become a mother, and as the boarding house was occupied entirely by men, the landlord suggested it was not a fit place for her, and advised them to apply at the Cross Keys for accommodations. She left that house on Monday morning, as was supposed, to go to the Cross Keyes but was not seen there, and has not been seen or heard of since. The young men who first came with her were there several times afterwards, but have not been seen since she left. Her trunk, which was marked—"Mrs. H. Burchell, destination, James Rordoff, Mauston, Sauk Co., Wis.," is still in the possession of the landlord, who is anxious with reference to her whereabouts, and has set on foot this inquiry. Any information left here will be communicated to the interested parties.—Free Democrat.

☞ POMEROY, of the Horicon Argus, thus sets up one of our City Institutions:

WALKER HOUSE, MILWAUKEE.—If you ever visit Milwaukee, we say, and you will find it so, that the "Walker House" is the best place to stop at in the whole of that "little village."—The beds are clean, rooms in good order, and everything in connection with the House, in apple pie order. Then there is that "Kentucky Giant," one BLAKE, the man who presides in the office, the man who figures up the bill—but you all know BLAKE—one of the best fellows in the city, ever ready to see that every one enjoys himself. The Walker House stops with him now, and numerous other people besides. If you wish to live go there.

To the Public.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Milwaukee, feeling the great importance of a thorough permanent organization for the relief of the poor of this city, would hereby call a Mass meeting to be held at Albany Hall on Monday 23d inst., at half past seven P. M.

A general attendance is earnestly requested.

The Pork Trade

LOUISVILLE.

(From the Courier-Journal, 18th.)

Messrs. Atkinson, Thomas & Co. killed 800 hogs yesterday, and Messrs Jarvis & Co. killed also 1,200, which were all that had been received then for. 2,0 could hear of no contracts. There are buyers, however, at $5 net, cash. A good many hogs are expected in during the latter part of the week, and if the weather is favorable all the houses will commence operations next week.

GLASGOW, KY.

(From the Times of the 12th.)

We understand some sales of pork have been made at $5 per per hundred for hogs weighing 200 pounds and over. Offers at this figure have been about the ruling rate for the above description of hogs; those of less size a fraction less.

MARINE.

PORT OF MILWAUKEE—Nov. 20, 1857.

(No arrivals reported.)

THE RIVERS—THE MISSISSIPPI CLOSED BELOW ST. PAUL.—We hear that the river is choked with ice at Hastings, and that navigation was suspended. The present cold spell will settle business till spring.

The Upper Rivers are all falling—the Missouri with three and a half feet scant, and the lower rapids of the Upper Mississippi with about twenty-six inches.

The Illinois is in fair boating condition.

AGROUND.—We learn that the bark Badger State bound from Milwaukee, with a load of wheat for Buffalo, got aground last night off the fort of Belle Isle; a tug has gone to her assistance.—Det. Trib., 19th.

LATEST NEWS!

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.

Important from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.

I learn from an intelligent gentleman who has spent 2 or three years among the Salt Lake Mormons, a fact or two, tending to confirm the suspicion that the recent terrible massacre of over 100 California emigrants by Santa Clara Indians, was perpetrated under the influence of the Mormon leaders.

It is evident that the savages who perpetrated this outrage are the same band who cut off Capt. Gunnison and his command, for they are the only band of Indians at Corn Creek, who raise grain and have it to sell. They are the same also who, a year or more ago, came very near massacreing Dr. Hunt, the United States Indian Agent, Mr. Burr, U. S. Surveyor General, and their party, at the suggestion of Mormon emissaries, who rode into the Indian village a few miles ahead of them, and announced that the Indian Agent and his friends were coming to arrest and punish them for Gunnison's murder. On that occasion, fortunately, they were accompanied by the War Chief of a neighboring friendly tribe, who succeeded, with difficulty, in satisfying the Indians that they were on a friendly visit.

I learn also that Bill Hickman and Lot Smith, erroneously published Locksmith, who headed the party which recently destroyed the train containing supplies for the troops, on their way to Utah, are two of the most notorious leaders of the Mormon Danite Band, for destroying Arabs.

There is reason to believe that Brigham Young has fully made up his mind that he must leave Utah next spring. It seems that part of the mission to England of Elder Orson Pratt and Ezra P. Benson, who is still abroad, was to seek from the British Government permission to settle in the British Possessions. The application was refused.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

The United States steam frigate Niagara, Captain Hudson, from Plymouth, England, November 6th, arrived at this port to-day. She made the passage in fourteen days and four hours—reports heavy westerly gales during nearly the whole passage.

The steamer Black Warrior, from Havana the 15th inst. arrived that A. M. Business at Havana very dull. Sugar is declining and sales small. Stock at Havana and Matanzas, 17,000 boxes.

The extensive carriage manufactory of James R. Hendry, at Jamaica, L. I., was burned last evening, together with the Dutch Reformed Church, and several other buildings. Loss $20,000. Doubtless the work of an incendiary, as the hose of one of the fire companies had been previously cut, and that of companies from the neighboring villages, was cut after their arrival on the ground.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 21.

PROCLAMATION.

FOR a year of singular fruitfulness; for the continued blessing of peace; for immunity from pestilence; for the favoring providence that has cast our lot in this pleasant land; and for all the manifold tokens of the Divine Bounty vouchsafed us, a common sentiment of unfeigned and heartfelt gratitude, must pervade every breast.

From an early period in our colonial history, in most of the States, a day has been designated, annually, for purposes of public thanksgiving and the acknowledgment of the good gifts of the Common Benefactor; and in compliance with this appropriate and time-honored custom, I hereby recommend that Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November, be thus observed throughout the State.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the great seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in Madison, this sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

By the Governor, COLES BASHFORD.

D. W. JONES, Secretary of State. nov11d

"Official" Cyphering.

The Madison Argus has been in a very unhappy frame of mind, ever since the official returns began to concede and blasted its sanguine hopes and confident predictions of victory. Having started by claiming the election of the entire Democratic ticket by some thousands of majority, and a Democratic majority in the Legislature, the official Argus now finds itself obliged to abandon both claims, and it does so with anything but a good grace. It takes its revenge, however, for this forced retreat, in scolding at the election tables of the Madison Journal and the Sentinel, and after accusing the former of wilfully misrepresenting the returns, says, in regard to ourselves:

The Sentinel is partly practising the same system, and neither count in Cross' 225 majority in the Jefferson towns. If they give fair, honest figures they would save their own reputation for correctness, (if they ever had any,) and wouldn't damage Randall's chances in the least.

The Sentinel is quite willing to compare "reputations for correctness" with the Madison Argus, or any other paper. We have been especially careful to give none but fair, honest figures," and the official returns approximate very closely to our reported results. Let us take, for instance, the very counties which the Argus cites as proof of the Sentinel's "incorrectness:"

Counties.	Sentinel.	Argus.
Calumet	127	127
Chippewa	188	187
Kewaunee	119	150
Oconto	66	141
St. Croix	80	33
	530	638

Now the official of Oconto is but 26 for Cross and St. Croix is 30—precisely what we had it.—We gave Cross, therefore, in those counties 40 too many, while the Argus gave him 118 too many. The official returns in the other three counties will doubtless dock the Argus majorities, 50 more. We advise the State paper, therefore to give up "cyphering," and thankfully copy the Sentinel's "fair and honest figures."

P.S. Kewaunee, official, is 127 for Cross, instead of 150, as the Argus had it.

The Pro-Slavery Constitution for Kansas.

The News of yesterday, no longer able to deny, and unwilling to defend the outrage attempted to be committed upon the people of Kansas, by the bogus Convention recently in session there, takes ground against the Constitution which they have framed and refused to submit to the popular vote, and predicts its rejection by the next Congress. The News says:

On the side of the People of Kansas, against the framers of the proposed Constitution, is the President and his Cabinet, the entire Democratic press of the North, and a respectable share of the Southern Democratic press.

Per contra; we find in the same paper, among its telegraphic items, the following seemingly authoritative announcement from Washington, under date of Nov. 18:

The action of the Constitutional Convention of Kansas, meets the approval of the President, as calculated to quiet existing troubles.

We wait to see whether this report, as to the Presidential endorsement of the Bogus Convention and their Pro-Slavery Constitution, is confirmed, or disproved by further advices. Should it prove correct, our neighbors of the News will have to "crawfish" forthwith.

CLOSE VOTING.—The vote for State Senator in the Watertown district, is one of the most even on record. There were three candidates, Enos, republican, Chappel, regular democrat, and Butler, independent democrat, whose vote stands as follows:

Enos,	765
Chappel,	786
Butler,	771

We get the figures from the Watertown Democrat. It has been stated that, owing to the refusal of the Jefferson County Board to receive the five Dodge Co. towns set over to them, Butler gets the certificate. The vote in the old Jefferson county towns is, Enos 582, Chappel 507, Butler 600.

Information and Documents Wanted.

Any person having a copy of the Report of the trial before the Supreme Court of Wisconsin of Gov. Bashford vs. Barstow, in which the forged supplementary returns by which the Democratic party attempted to rebelout Barstow against the will of a majority of the people of that State, were investigated, will confer a favor by leaving it at this office, or handing it to O. D. Gilfillan, Chairman of the Central Committee. —Minnesotian, Nov. 17.

Vol. 4 of "Wisconsin Reports" contains a very full and carefully prepared report of the arguments of Counsel, and the opinions of the Court in the memorable case referred to. Our friends in Minnesota, it appears, are likely to undergo a similar experience of forgeries and frauds upon the Ballot-box. We hope that they may be as successful in exposing and punishing the authors and abettors of these outrages upon the elective franchise, as were the Republicans of Wisconsin.

GOOD!—The Kansas Tribune, in noticing the result of the Iowa election, and the certainty of a Republican successor to Senator Jones, gets off the following:

"Brigadier General George Washington Jones goes quietly to that bourne whither Dodge has illustriously preceded him. Like lost comets, they trail away on the edge of an uncomputed hyperbola.

We call that pretty fair for Kansas. But is it to Spain that the man means Jones to go? Dodge went there.

FERNANDO WOOD AGAIN.—In the Supreme Court in New York on Monday last, Judge Davies granted an injunction against paying for the glass ballot boxes bought by the Police Commissioners of S. C. Jolliff, and used at the last election. The application alleges that 4000 of these boxes were bought, when but 1740 were needed,—that fifteen dollars each were paid when they cost less than five,—that the pretext that they were patented was untrue, and that the parties to the fraudulent transaction and the sharers of its profits were Mayor Wood and his brother Benjamin. The hearing of the case will probably reveal some very curious facts connected with the City Government.

If the facts alleged are proved against the Mayor, it will only commend him the more to the elements that rule New York, and his re-election may be considered certain.

WHO IS GOVERNOR ELECT?—We cannot better express our feelings on the subject than in the following Hiawathan language of the Boston Traveller, of Nov. 4th, adding but a line of our own:

Should you ask us of the boutie,
Who were wounded, who left dying,
Who gained glory in the contest,
Who came victors from the strife,
Who with sadness saw hopes blasted
They had cherished, vainly cherished,
And went back unto their wigwams,
Broken-hearted and idle, saying:
Went back to their squaws and wigwams
Where the women strove to cheer them,
Soothed their bleeding wounds and spirits,
Whispered to them consolation—
If cold, you eat us, should you urge us—
We should answer, we should tell you—
No! We would not, could not tell you
We'd bold leave it all unspoken!
We should turn us round, and leave you
With the story all unfinished.
Soon the shouts will tell you of it—
Voice of thunder loudly speak it—
Every wigwam bring forth proclaim it—
Who first in the dreadful contest,
Who was made the victor Chief.
Nevertheless—
We rather think his name is RANDALL.

PROBABLE STATION ON THE UNDERGROUND RAILWAY.—During the excavation of a street in Evansville, Ia., a few days since, the workmen came across the remains of a cabin eighteen feet below the surface of the earth. Within the wall were found portions of an old fashioned spinning-wheel, a wooden maul, several pairs of boots and shoes, and a charred stick which the former occupants of the cabin had used to poke the fire with.

SUICIDE BY DROWNING.—On the 16th, in the town of Ixonia, Jefferson county, Mr. GERRY BEACH, one of the pioneers of the county, and a man highly esteemed by all who knew him, drowned himself in Rock River. The Watertown Democrat intimates that pecuniary troubles led to the act.

EXTENSIVE PAINTING.—The great English steamer Leviathan is painted in red lead, up to the 20 ft. line, copper color for 15 feet higher, and the remaining 32 feet black. The surface, inside and outside, to be painted, is more than 24 acres!

TOBACCO GROWING IN NEW YORK.—In 1854, there were nearly a million pounds of tobacco grown in the State of New York, over half of which was produced in Onondaga county.

DECAPITATION.—Mr. E. A. Scofield, one of the clerks in the State Treasury Department, was decapitated yesterday. Reason: he voted for S. D. Hastings for Treasurer, believing from his personal acquaintance with the "Democratic" candidate, that he was unfit for the office.—Madison Journal.

Possibly Mr. HASTINGS may have it in his power to right the above wrong.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—The Madison Argus thus notices a couple of valuable additions to the gallery of the Society:

The gallery of the State Historical Society has received several additions lately that render it more interesting. Among them is a portrait of the late Dr. Percival—painted by Flagg, only one other original extant, and that at the Providence R. I. Athenæum. The likeness was evidently executed several years ago; but the earnest, dilated eye, renders it easily recognizable to those who ever saw the poet.

Also, a portrait of Dr. Kane, painted and presented to the Society by the Chevalier Fagnani, a Venetian artist, who painted a portrait from life of the renowned Arctic Explorer, and this is a faithful copy. It is a finished picture, and, indeed, a fine production.

These alone are worth a visit to the rooms of the Society.

DEATH OF ANDREW WHITE.—The Albany Evening Journal comes dressed in mourning for ANDREW WHITE, one of the firm who first started the Journal in 1830. That paper says:

Mr. White was born in 1803, at West Middletown, Pa.; soon after the parents came from Ireland. They removed from thence to this City, where our deceased Friend has ever since resided. We first made his acquaintance in 1814, at the office of Messrs. Websters & Skinners, in whose Book Bindery he was an Apprentice.—When in 1830 this Journal was established, Mr. White connected himself with what was regarded a doubtful enterprise, and we doubt but simple justice, in saying that to his industry, watchful ness, intelligence and attention, at all times untiring and unremitting, largely indebted for its immediate and enduring prosperity." During the first twelve years that Mr. White took upon himself the entire financial labors and responsibilities of the Office, three of his Associate Proprietors retired (at different periods) with an aggregate of over $100,000 in profits. After fourteen years service, Mr. White himself retired with an equal amount as his own well-merited dividend.

THE STEAMSHIP ADRIATIC.—This mammoth steamship, of the Collins line, which has been so long in building, is to start on her first voyage to-day. A gentleman who was on board of the steamer on her first trial trip, before she left for the second one, sends to the Tribune the following notes of the performance:

We left Canal street dock about 9 o'clock on Friday morning, and have run out to sea back and forth within fifty miles of the Lightship, and have returned to Sandy Hook to allow part of our company to return to the city, after which we put to sea again, intending to return to New York on Monday morning.

As I know the interest felt in the trial of the mighty engines of this steamer, I cannot deny myself the pleasure of reporting the satisfactory success thus far attending it. No one can realize the simplicity and beauty of the movements of the enormous engines without seeing them in operation. I cannot imagine what more is to be desired, or, in fact, in the nature of things, is practicable. Each piston of the two stupendous cylinders issues forth in turn, urging on its work with giant power without the intervention of any other, while the valve gear and other controlling instrumentalities are performing their functions regularly, gently and accurately, presenting a simplicity of action that captivates every beholder, and when seen in combination with such vast proportions and strength, creates the conviction that here is before you a degree of safety and efficiency not to be found in more complicated arrangements.

It is, however, not my object to describe these engines but merely to let you know how successful, thus far, is this first trial trip of the Adriatic and that already all doubt of the entire success of the machinery and boilers of this noble vessel is at an end with all on board.

One word as to the model. If the lamented George Steers were fortunately alive, he would not have decried the lines of the Adriatic to be other than they are.

FROM CHINA.—The Alta California, Oct. 20, publishes the following item of news, received by the American ship Alexander, from Manilla. If true, the news is very important:

A private letter by her was received from Manilla, giving an account of the horrible massacre, by the Chinese, of all the American and English residents of Ningpo, one of the five open ports lying between Amoy and Shanghai. Our informant could furnish us with no further details, but informs us that the news is beyond all question reliable. The number of Americans and English at that port was estimated at forty, all of whom the captain believes to have been murdered.

☞ The News speaks of Harrison C. Hobart as a man of "varied abilities."

That is so. In the Legislature of 1850, Harrison made a violent speech denouncing and censuring Hon. I. P. Walker for voting for the Oregon bill without the Wilmot Proviso.—Madison Journal.

Failure of a Banker at Lawrence, K. T.

LAWRENCE, KANSAS, Nov. 12.

MR. EDITOR—Messrs. Bacon, Cook & Co., bankers of this place, suspended payment this morning. Liabilities supposed to be about $50,000. Assets ample, and as both the principal members are known to be wealthy, no alarm is felt here. It is expected that they will soon resume. P.

—Missouri Democrat.

Kansas and her Oppressors.

Squatter sovereignty has played our its role. It was the swindle put forth to justify the breach of the Missouri Compromise, the promise that was never intended to be kept, and since it has performed its part in shielding from public indignation that audacious band of political adventurers who destroyed the compact of 1820, by the pretext that in lieu of the prohibition of slavery, the people of Kansas should have the right to form their own government and settle their own institutions, it is in turn violated and trodden under foot. What else could have been expected by any man of common sense? If in the ordinary affairs of life, a man violates his pledged faith, who but a fool will put his trust in him again? And when that perfidious combination was formed to destroy the compact of 1820, a compromise made by our fathers, and to which their honor and our own was pledged, who could put faith in those who aided in its destruction? Who but an idiot could rely upon the pledge they gave of allowing the people of Kansas to form their own institutions? They had already lost all claim to confidence by the perfidy which that pledge was made to palliate and excuse. If anybody was foolish enough to put faith in the promises of President Pierce and his party, that the people of Kansas should be left free to form their own institutions, prefaced as those promises were by the infamous breach of faith involved in the repeal of the Missouri compromise, he deserved to be cheated, as he certainly was intended to be; for no sooner was the promise given, than it was broken; the whole power, patronage and influence of the administration and its party was wielded to deprive the people of Kansas of all voice in their own affairs, and the history of the territory since its organization, proves that the federal government and its myrmidons have stopped at no fraud, cruelty, brutality or crime, to force upon that fair land, the institution to which from the first hour, her people have been utterly opposed. Nor have they stopped at any falsehood to conceal from the people of the Union the infamy of their conduct, and thus prevent their sympathy from sustaining those heroic spirits who fought for freedom in Kansas. Mr. Buchanan's administration, which attained power by promising (at least in the northern States) to deal justly by the freemen of Kansas, has eclipsed his predecessors in mean subserviency to the south and her demands; and the result is, that whilst it has been demonstrated that more than two-thirds of the people of Kansas are in favor of a free State, a convention, elected by fraud and sitting under the protection of United States troops, has imposed upon the people a slavery constitution. There is not a town or county in the Territory of Kansas in which this convention could have held its sittings without the protection of the federal army; and yet it has assumed to make a constitution for that people. Does not this fact speak for itself? Does it not prove that the constitution was imposed upon Kansas by the army of the United States, and not by a convention? Will the people of the United States permit this infamy to be consummated? There is no other country on the face of the earth where such an outrage could be perpetrated without exciting the execration of every honest and right-thinking man. Will it be permitted in republican America, and shall the Democratic party be the instrument for enforcing this flagitious usurpation?

But there is still another, and still more repulsive feature connected with this business, which shows clearly to whom the paternity of this constitution belongs. It bears upon its body the birth-mark of fraud, clearly indicating that it is the progeny of the same parents who produced the Kansas-Nebraska act itself, and all of those measures of outrage by which that fair land has been afflicted. The constitution imposed upon Kansas by the military arm of the general government, recognizes the existence of slavery and prevents it from ever being prohibited; but the outrage of forcing slavery upon a people, two-thirds of whom are known to be opposed to it, by the federal army, would not of itself disgust it from any other brutal and vulgar despotism. Something was wanting to assert its claim to rank with those other acts which bear the National Democratic stamp.

We shall show what that thing was. The constitution framed as we have stated, recognized and perpetuated slavery in Kansas, but a separate clause was framed providing that slaves might hereafter be imported and held in Kansas, and it was further provided that it should be submitted to the people to vote for it in this form: "For the constitution with slavery"—that is, the clause for introducing slaves hereafter; or "For the constitution without slavery"—that is, for a constitution which recognizes and perpetuates slavery, without the clause admitting slaves to be hereafter introduced. But in no event are the people permitted to vote against the constitution framed in Lecompton by the vilest set of vagabonds and miscreants on the earth, under the protection and authority of the United States army, and which recognizes and perpetuates slavery. Thus marked, the constitution produced at Lecompton is worthy to rank with the other acts of the National Democratic party, the offspring of southern arrogance and despotism and northern perfidy and fraud. Southern arrogance, planting slavery in the fair territories of the Union in order that the slaveholders oligarchy may wield universal power; and perfidy and fraud, to conceal the susceptiency of those northern doughfaces from the free white laboring men, whom they have betrayed by the surrender of their heritage to slavery. Will Douglas and his confederate doughfaces be able still longer to deceive the working men of the North and make them believe that the people of Kansas have been left perfectly free to form their own domestic institutions," when the federal army in Kansas, through a convention of the most abandoned miscreants, have thus forced upon them a constitution recognizing and perpetuating slavery, leaving them free only to accept or reject a clause for slave importation? Can the juggle of words, inserted by such demagogues as Walker and Douglas, "For the constitution with slavery, or For the constitution without slavery," deceive anybody into the belief that the question of slavery has been submitted to the people, when the constitution which they are not permitted to vote against, not only admits, but makes slavery perpetual and irrepealable."

Attempt to Launch the "Great Eastern."

The launch of the mammoth steamship heretofore known as the "Great Eastern," but now formally christened "Leviathan," was commenced at noon on the 3d inst. The usual means were taken to move the vessel, but for some time without avail.

After about three hours' labor, the ship had moved about six feet by the stern, and a little over four feet by the bow, when one of the powerful purchase chains broke, and the work had to be temporarily suspended.

Operations were to commence as soon as the accident could be rectified, and London papers of the afternoon of the 2d say it was confidently hoped that the ship would be afloat at high water on Wednesday the 4th.

During the operations a sudden strain on one of the drums caused it to revolve with great velocity, throwing several of the men into the air like straws, and knocking down others with great violence.

Four men had their arms and legs broken, and one died as he was being conveyed to the hospital. Immense numbers of people, including many distinguished men, assembled on shore and on the river to witness the launch.

LATEST.

The London Times of Wednesday 4th says, that a postponement of further efforts to the 2d of December, had been resolved upon, and that in the meantime, the ship will stand in great danger of settling, owing to the immense pressure (12,000 tons,) upon the new made earth.

☞ The Navy Department has advices to the 14th of October, from Capt. Sands, commanding the United States steam frigate Susquehannah, then at Spezzia, containing some items of interest. The steamer left Plymouth on the 30th of September, and on passing the Straits of Gibraltar, shaped her course along that portion of the coast of Barbary known as the "Riff coast," for the purpose of showing her flag, as the inhabitants were, with good reason, suspected of being piratically disposed. On nearing Cape Aqua, a body of men were observed on the bluffs above.

The ship was cleared for action, and Capt. Sands landed and brought four Arabs on board, from whom he endeavored to gain some information as to what these demonstrations meant.—Capt. Sands then made a drawing of the American flag, which he showed to the Arabs, telling them that all attacks upon vessels carrying the flag would be severely punished. The visitors were then shown the ship's batteries and engines, and they appeared to be deeply impressed with all they had seen and heard.

☞ Our County Division Question has occupied the attention of the Board of Supervisors to a considerable extent the past week. A resolution was finally adopted on Saturday to send the Sheriff after the tax rolls of the towns in dispute, and to summon the chairman of each town to attend the county board. The vote of the towns will then probably be counted in this county.

The question of where these townships belong is one that should claim the earliest attention of the next legislature, and the only proper course for that legislature would be to refer the matter to a body to take would be to refer the matter to a vote of the people in the towns which have been attached to Jefferson County prefer to remain with county, and we are confident that a vote of the people would give them the privilege.

We hope the day is not far distant when this vexed question will be "settled in some way."—Dodge Co. Citizen, Nov. 17.

APPOINTED.—We are pleased to learn that Hon. C. H. Larrabee has appointed Paul Juneau, Esq., Clerk of the Circuit Court, in place of Sam. Noyes, resigned. Mr. Juneau has appointed Wm. R. Kinyon as his Deputy.—Hon. Argus.

PROGRESS OF THE UTAH EXPEDITION.

The Mormon Rebellion Confirmed—The U. S. Forces in Difficulties.

From the N. Y. Tribune's Special Correspondent.

CAMP, 260 miles west from Ft. Laramie, October 18, 1857.

During Capt. Van Vliet's stay, in Salt Lake City last month, he overheard but one remark which induced him to believe that the declarations by the Mormons of intention to resist the troops were not earnest. That was an observation by Brigham Young to the effect that his intention was unalterable, "unless he should get another revelation to the contrary, which he was sure that he should not."

The result has certainly justified the Prophet's confidence. No such revelation had been received by him up to October 5th, on which date acts were committed under this direction, which cannot fail to end in bloodshed. On that day the two regiments of infantry and the artillery and ordnance batteries were encamped on Ham's Fork, which branches from Black's Fork, which is a fork of Green river. The two nearest supply trains were but a few miles distant from Green river, on the east bank, and about 30 miles from Col. Alexander's camp. The next on the road had advanced about 20 miles west from Pacific Springs, which rise at a short distance beyond South Pass. About 11 o'clock at night, these three trains were surprised and seized by parties of Mormons, their contents examined, and what was worth pillaging was stolen, and the remainder destroyed by fire. Each train consisted of 26 wagons, and belonged to the number sent out by Messrs. Russell & Waddell, of Leavenworth city, contractors for the transportation of stores for the army, and for the supply of beef cattle. The teamsters made no resistance and were unharmed. These Mormon bands are understood to be under the command of "Bill" Hickman, although it is rumored that Heber C. Kimball attends them. They are all well mounted and armed, each man being provided with a California horse, and with a rifle and from one to three revolvers. Hickman is supposed to have directed the proceeding near Pacific Springs, while a man named Lucksmith commanded near Green river.

Immediately upon the receipt of the news of this attack, Colonel Alexander sent Captain Marcy of the 5th Infantry, with five companies, back to Green river. He arrived, however, only in season to take charge of the cattle of the trains which the Mormons had left, with the polite request that the troops would fatten them this winter, when they would be in good condition for Mormon eating in the spring. Another of their jeux d'esprit was a remark to the teamsters that they had only burned the wagons this time, but would be likely to burn the wagoners the next." Col. Alexander also sent dispatches to Brevet Col. Smith, from whose camp I am writing, and Capt. Marcy sent by another messenger a circular letter to the trains on the road, advising them, for the sake of safety, to place themselves under Col. Smith's protection. Both express-men were intercepted by the Mormons, but as nothing suspicious was found on their persons, and it did not appear on what errands they were bound, they were released.—The one from Col. Alexander, perceiving that it was impossible to avoid arrest, destroyed the dispatches to Col. Smith, according to his instructions, and we are ignorant of their contents.—The other brought Capt. Marcy's circular safely through in the toe of his moccasin.

The season, which had been uncommonly favorable up to the beginning of October, has resumed its natural severity. Ice has formed in our buckets every morning, but one since we left Fort Laramie. The northern slopes of the mountains are completely whitened with a covering which will not melt until 1858, and even the southern slopes are powdered scantily with snow, of which there was a fall on Saturday night that chilled our road on Sunday and Monday, and has muddled it to-day. The Mormons have probably burned the grass along that entire route, and obstructed the defiles in which it abounds, in such a manner that only artillery could clear them. But if the army concentrates at Soda Springs it will have before it a road along a valley, it is said, even at midwinter, direct to Salt Lake City.

The entire force of fighting men in the expedition does not probably exceed ten or eleven hundred. It includes the entire Tenth Regiment of Infantry, eight companies of the Fifth Infantry, a detachment of the Fourth Artillery, with six light pieces, and about sixty men, and an ordnance train with heavy pieces, of about the same strength. The teamsters and other laborers attached to the expedition might swell the entire force to sixteen hundred and more, but these last would have their hands full in taking care of their cattle. From the South Pass to Fort Bridger is, as we have stated, a hundred and thirty-one miles, of which more than a third part is a perfect desert, and the whole a difficult country, with very little grass. What little there is, the same parties of Mormons employed in interrupting the trains will doubtless set on fire and destroy.

From Fort Bridger to Salt Lake City, the direct road across the mountains is one hundred and thirteen miles, but this is a very difficult route, with many narrow passes, liable to be blocked with snow, hardly practicable so late in the season at any rate, and still less so with the prospect of active resistance on the part of the Mormons. There is another road, following the valley of the Bear river north to Soda Springs, where the Oregon road forms off, and then through south by the same valley and the eastern shore of the Great Salt Lake. This route nearly doubles the distance, but it is much more practicable, and should the Expedition advance into the valley, it will probably be by this road. The great difficulty in the advance is the subsistence of the cattle of the provision trains.

SANTA FILOMENA.

BY HENRY W. LONGFELLOW.

Whene'er a noble deed is wrought,
Whene'er is spoken a noble thought,
Our hearts, in glad surprise,
To higher levels rise.

The tidal wave of deeper souls
Into our inmost bay rolls,
And lifts us unawares
Out o all meaner cares.

Honor those whose words or deeds
Thus help us in our daily needs;
And by their overflow
Raise us from what is low!

Thus thought I, as by night I read
Of the great army of the dead,
The trenches cold and damp,
The starved and frozen camp—

The wounded from the battle plain,
In dreary hospitals of pain,
The cheerless corridors,
The cold and stony floors!

Lo! in that house of misery
A lady with a lamp I see
Pass through the glimmering gloom,
And flit from room to room.

And slow as in a dream of bliss,
The speechless sufferer turns to kiss
Her shadow, as it falls
Upon the darkening walls

As if a door in heaven should be
Opened, and then closed suddenly,
The vision came and went—
The light shone, and was spent.

On England's annals, through the long
Hereafter of her speech and song,
That light its rays shall cast
From portals of the Past.

A lady with a lamp shall stand
In the great history of the land;
A noble type of good,
Heroic womanhood.

Nor even shall be wanting here
The palm, the lily and the spear,
The symbols that of yore
Saint Filomena bore.

* Saint Nightingale—a tribute to Florence, the saint of the Crimea.

SINGING IN SPURGEON'S CHURCH.—The prayer concluded, Mr. Spurgeon gave out the well-known hymn beginning

"Before Jehovah's awful throne."

He read it through, having first announced, that the tune would be the "Old Hundredth," and then read each verse separately before it was sung. "It is scarcely possible to give any idea of the sublime effect produced by those ten thousand voices, as they swelled the massive harmonies of that grand tune with a fullness of breath rarely heard. After singing the second verse, Mr. Spurgeon said, "I will read the third verse, and you will sing the fourth, and let the uplifting of your voices be as the sound of many waters!" His audience responded to his wish. The words of the verse were:

"Wrath crown Thy gates with threefold songs,
High as the Heavenson whose rainbow rises;
And earth, while her tongues are in thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praises.

Most magnificent was the shout of praise that now went up. Not a voice was mute, save where occasionally some one's nerves were overpowered by the massive rolling chorus that rose on every side. Never did we so realize what congregational singing might become. It was an uplifting of voice and heart, such as none can hope to hear only a few times in the course of life. Much of this grand effect was no doubt owing to the majesty of the tune itself—much to the fact that all the congregation knew it—and perhaps not a little to the practice of reading each verse before it was sung, a practice we have always thought a very reasonable one, especially amongst the poor and those who cannot read.

☞ There is an old story in the East, not inapplicable to these times of panic, of a man who met a dark and dread apparition. "Who are you?" said the traveller, accosting the spectre. "I am the plague," it replied. "And where are you going?" rejoined the traveler. "I am going to Damascus to kill three thousand human beings," said the spectre. Two months afterwards, the man returning, met the same apparition at the same point. "False spirit," said he, "why dost thou deal with me in lies? Thou declaredst thou wert going to slay three thousand at Damascus, and lo! thou hast slain thirty thousand."—"Friend," replied the plague, "be not over hasty in thy judgments; I killed, indeed, but my three thousand—Fear killed the rest."

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES.

I HAVE JUST OPENED an invoice of goods which are the good to sell at auction; therefore, will sell them at private sale, at 20 ⅌ cent less than what they are worth, and 30 ⅌ cent less than you can purchase them in the city. The goods consist of White Under Flannels, Colbrez Flannels, Twilled Flannels, some French Merinoes, bonnet and wool Delaines, Silk Velvets, &c. The assortment is not very large, but what there is is of superior quality.

I have also just opened, one case, consisting of twelve Ladies Fall and Winter Cloaks; latest style, to be sold at great bargains.

City Auction Room.

ANY ONE who has a good stock of Dry Goods, I will exchange a farm for them. Also, will sell my stock, furniture, &c., and if the stock of goods is very large and is worth more than the farm, I will pay the balance in money. Or I will exchange said farm for unimproved property, or I will sell the said farm for good mortgages, running 2, 3, 5 years, or I will exchange said farm for first class stock. Here is a good chance for some one to get a good home. This and a half John's the cash farm in the city, with everything that one's heart should desire, with a good house and splendid barn, which would rent in Milwaukee for six hundred dollars a year.

CALEB WALL.

N. B.—If the said farm is not sold in thirty days, I want a good, honest, quick man and his wife to take care of said farm; for the coming winter, and probably when the spring comes I may conclude to keep the farm. So a situation for some one to get a comfortable home for the winter. I do not care what country they are from, but will require good references.

FROM THE VILLAGE of Whitewater, Walworth County, Wisconsin, between the hours of eleven and five o'clock, October 10 and 11, 1857, one A. Emery. Said Emery took away with him one slate-set billiard table, nearly new, and fixtures, to which the subscriber had a mortgage of $300. Now, therefore, this is to notify all persons not to purchase said Billiard Table and fixtures, as I shall hold the purchaser responsible for the same.
Any person giving information by letter or otherwise where Emery may be found, will be paid a reward of FIVE DOLLARS.
